

Civilian Oversight

SIU SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS UNIT
UES UNITÉ DES ENQUÊTES SPÉCIALES

The mandate of the SIU is to investigate incidents involving police officers and civilians that have resulted in serious injury or death

The OIPRD independently reviews all public complaints about police officers in Ontario. It receives, manages, and oversees complaints about the conduct of police officers as well as complaints about policies and services of a police force

The OCPC is an adjudicative body that conducts hearings related to police disciplinary decisions; budget disputes between municipal councils and police service boards; and disputes related to the provision of police services